Hi, Francesca,

We had talked about changing the title when Maureen was revising the communications materials. We had not yet made the title change to the actual document. But, I did just make the change and the document is on the L drive and also attached.

Subject: Procedures

Hi –
We chatted last week about some changes to the last version of the Procedures document. I cannot find a version with those changes. I went to the L drive and the one dated 3/31 does not reflect the change in title that was one of the changes we made. Can you locate that very latest version? I want to upload the new diagram into the latest version.
Thanks
Francesca
